III. TYPES OF SCHOLARSHIPS

5. § Neumann Study scholarships

The Neumann Study Scholarships aim to support students with outstanding academic performance, providing them with opportunities for further development. The scholarships are awarded based on specific criteria.

5./A § Study grant

- (1) The purpose of the study scholarship is to create a uniform, non-faculty-specific form of support for state scholarship and self-financing students that rewards academic progress and outstanding academic performance. During the first five working days of the semester, the Rector shall inform the Students' Union of the amount of funding the governing body is providing for the academic scholarship¹.

(2) Based on the allocation of student numbers, the annual/semester budget is determined separately for the three faculties, the source of which is the portion of the total eligible state student subsidy that can be spent on study scholarships, supplemented by an equal amount of maintenance support. In the case of Faculty of Economics (GTK), the faculty budget supplemented by the maintenance subsidy shall be reduced by the amount of the ECO scholarship.

(3) The study scholarship may be awarded for the duration of one academic semester. The duration of the scholarship is 5 months per semester, covering the period from September to June of the given academic year. The first scholarship of the current semester is paid together with the second monthly scholarship.

(4) The scholarship is awarded based on the academic results of eligible students, so no separate application is required.

(5) Up to 50% of students enrolled in state-funded full-time programs at higher education institutions may receive state-funded study scholarships, provided that the monthly amount of the study scholarship awarded to each student is at least 5% of the student subsidy but may not exceed 50%.

(6) Scholarships may be awarded regardless of the form of financing. Students participating in self-financed training programmes are also eligible for scholarships based on their academic performance.

(7) The proportion of students eligible for study scholarships shall be determined by the Rector, with the countersignature of the president and CEO, by the 15th day of the first month of the semester. The allocation of scholarships among the faculties is based on the proportion of full-time students (hereinafter referred to as "students receiving scholarships").

(8) The amount of average scholarship per person is the ratio of the scholarship amount allocated to the given faculty and the number of students eligible for scholarships.

(9) When awarding study scholarships—particularly when determining the scope and number of recipients—it must be ensured that results achieved on the basis of the same or similar study obligations are comparable and that the scholarships awarded are of equal value.

(10) The circle of scholarship recipients:

- a. The student is actively enrolled in a full-time higher education vocational training, bachelor's or master's program. Correspondence students are eligible for scholarships in accordance with faculty regulations.
- b. The student is not enrolled in a part-time program.
- c. The student must have completed at least one semester of study at the university in the given program and department, and have earned at least 30 credits.
- d. Students must have earned an average of at least 30 credits (completed or credited) per semester up to the previous active semester (based on the average of their active semesters) and must take at least 30 credits in the given semester.
- e. For the purpose of determining student scholarships, the number of credits taken per semester shall be determined on the basis of the credits of the courses to be taken or submitted during the first week of the semester (registration week) based on the course registration requests submitted during this period.
- f. Hungarian citizenship

(11) The University ranks students based on their previous and current semester credit indexes and determines scholarship eligibility in this order, up to the faculty quotas. Their number is the number of "scholarship recipients" specified above. If there is a tie for the last place in the faculty quota ranking, the order shall be determined as follows:

- a) Preference shall be given to students with a higher weighted grade point average for the previous semester.
- b) If the tie still remains after applying point a), preference will be given to students with a higher number of credits earned in the current semester.
- c) If the tie still remains after applying point b), the order will be determined by drawing lots.

(12) Students receiving scholarships receive so-called study points based on the table below. When calculating the scholarship, the faculty budget is divided by the total number of study points for the faculty and multiplied by the student's study points.

Credit index: KI Study points:

KI <3.00	0
$3.00 \leq \text{KI} < 4.00$	4
$4.00 \leq \text{KI} < 5.00$	5

13.2. As regards the scoring:

1. in addition to the student, there is a person living in the same household whose net monthly income is less than the student's average income of less than HUF 28 500.-,

2. A child is defined as a minor, as well as an adult who is enrolled in a full-time, school-based educational programme,

3. a child by a factor of 1.0 and a person who is not defined as a child by a factor of 0.5 should be taken into account.

13.3. The student declares any additional dependents by providing the following information:

4. the monthly average of care costs.

14.3. The points awarded to the student shall be determined as follows:

1. for monthly expenses of HUF 7 000.- or more: 1,
2. for monthly expenses of less than HUF 7 000.-: the student receives 0 points.

3. CALCULATION OF THE ACADEMIC SCORE FOR THE DORMITORY ADMISSION PROCEDURE

Credit index

The student's credit index is the product of the credit value and grade of the subjects completed in a given semester, divided by 30 credits. It is calculated per student, per semester, according to the following formula:

$$x = \frac{\sum k \cdot j}{30}$$

Credit index average

The student's credit index average is the arithmetic mean of the credit index of the two active semesters prior to the dormitory application. It is calculated per student at the time of application to the dormitory according to the following formula:

$$x = \frac{ki_1 + ki_2}{2}$$

Faculty credit index average

Indicate when calculating the faculty credit index average: v_i : the i-th GAMF.

w_i : the i-th KVK

y_i : the i-th GTK student's average credit index calculated as above.

The faculty credit index average is the arithmetic mean of the credit index averages of students applying for admission to a dormitory from a given faculty. It is calculated per faculty per semester according to the following formula:

$$v_{\text{GAMF}} = \frac{1}{n_{\text{GAMF}}} \sum_{i=1}^{n_{\text{GAMF}}} v_i$$

$$w_{\text{KVK}} = \frac{1}{n_{\text{KVK}}} \sum_{i=1}^{n_{\text{KVK}}} w_i$$

$$x_{PK} = \frac{1}{n_{PK}} \sum_{i=1}^{n_{PK}} x_i$$

$$y_{GTK} = \frac{1}{n_{GTK}} \sum_{i=1}^{n_{GTK}} y_i$$

$$z_{GK} = \frac{1}{n_{GK}} \sum_{i=1}^{n_{GK}} z_i$$

in which case the $n_{GAMF} \cdot n_{KVK} \cdot n_{GTK}$ is the number of students enrolled from each faculty in the semester under study.

University credit index average

The university credit index average is the arithmetic mean of the faculty credit index averages, weighted by faculty size. It is calculated for the University, on a per-semester basis, according to the following formula:

$$t_{NJE} = \frac{n_{GAMF} \cdot v_{GAMF} + n_{KVK} \cdot w_{KVK} + n_{GTK} \cdot y_{GTK}}{n_{GAMF} + n_{KVK} + n_{GTK}}$$

The faculty weighting factor is the ratio of the university and faculty credit index averages, which allows for the comparison of academic performance of students studying at different faculties. (A faculty with a lower average than the university average has a weighting factor greater than 1, while a faculty with a higher average has a weighting factor less than 1.) It is calculated for each faculty, on a per-semester basis, according to the following formula

$$S_{GAMF} = \frac{R_{NJE}}{V_{GAMF}}$$

$$S_{KVK} = \frac{R_{NJE}}{W_{KVK}}$$

$$S_{GTK} = \frac{R_{NJE}}{Y_{GTK}}$$

Dormitory credit index

The dormitory credit index is the product of the average credit index and the faculty weighting factor of the faculty in which the student is enrolled at the time of his/her application. It is calculated per faculty per student at the time of the application for residence halls according to the following formula:

$$Vi = vi \cdot sGAMF$$

$$Wi = wi \cdot sKVK$$

$$Yi = yi \cdot sGTK$$

Highest dormitory credit index

The largest dormitory credit index is the largest of the dormitory credit indices. When calculating the dormitory credit index the dormitory credit index of all students applying for admission to a dormitory shall be taken into account as follows:

$$M = \max (V_i . W_i . Y_i .)$$

Study score: The academic score of a student applying for the dormitory is 30 times the ratio of the dormitory credit index to the highest dormitory credit index. It is calculated for each student, in the same manner for each faculty, rounded to two decimal places, according to the following formula:

$$(P_{GAMF})_i = 30 \frac{V_i}{M}$$

$$(P_{KVK})_i = 30 \frac{W_i}{M}$$

$$(P_{GTK})_i = 30 \frac{Y_i}{M}$$

The maximum number of study points calculated as above is 30. The average of the study points per faculty is the same for all faculties:

$$(P_{GAMF})_{\hat{atlag}} = (P_{KVK})_{\hat{atlag}} = (P_{GTK})_{\hat{atlag}} = \frac{30}{M} t_{NJE}$$
